Matthew: SPOOKS & HOOKS

The second issue is published in saturday evening. So, we can start the third and last one this EasterCon.

@ekoner:

Brought my girlfriend & bestie to our 1st con. They aren't huge sci-fi or fantasy fans. They loved it! Holmes was our favourite session. Feels like coming home.

Silke Lühr-Jacobsen:

Thank you for the fantastic EasterCon 2015!
I've met some friends and seen interesting panels with Jim Butcher, Charles Stross and many other authors.
If I have got enough time to rest here in London, I'm going to read more books, fantasy and science fiction.

Nina Watson:

At the disco on Sunday it felt like a timewarp doing The Timewarp, and nearly everyone was on the dancefloor, same as 28 years ago!
Loved the chocolate expert workshop, the science talks, I voted with my arse, exploded kittens, sat with authors in the publishers rooms, got to hear about writers who have been unjustly overlooked - Judith Tarr, Kurtz, Bujold, Carol Macdonald, C J Cherryh - go and explore them!
